2. The appellant is absent today for the second time without any intimation despite previous order was sent to him through registered post.
3. The respondent Sh. Rajeev Kumar appeared. He states and submitted that information sought by the appellant is provided vide letter Ref. No. 327 dated 12.02.2026.
4. The Commission observes that despite due service of notice and sufficient opportunity, including the final opportunity granted vide order dated 10.03.2026, the appellant hasn't pointed any deficiency. He has failed to appear and prosecute the present appeal. The conduct of the appellant reflects a lack of interest in pursuing the present appeal.
5. In the absence of any representation from the appellant and there being nothing on record to rebut the submissions made by the respondent, the Commission presumes that the appellant has no further grievance to pursue in the matter.
6. In view of the above, no further action is required as the requisite information has already been furnished by the respondent; the case is hereby DISPOSED OF.
