ORDER:

1. The appellant filed the above-mentioned appeals before the Commission, which were fixed for hearing today. Since both the appeal cases involve the same appellant and respondent public authority and raise similar issues, the Commission deems it appropriate to pass a single interim order in both the appeals.
2. Both the parties were present and heard. On behalf of the respondent public authority, Sh. Bunty Kumar (Inspector), Sh. Sham Lal (Clerk), Sh. PradeepArora (Computer Operator) and Sh. Ashok Kumar (Inspector), O/o Municipal Council, Abohar appeared before the Commission. They submitted a written submission in the Commission vide letter Ref. No. 4988 dated 05.01.2026, which is taken on record along with all supporting enclosures. A copy of the same has also been endorsed to the appellant.
3. During the hearing, the appellant contended that irrelevant records have been provided so far by the PIO and that the information sought has not been furnished in its complete and correct form.
4. In response, the representatives of the respondent public authority stated that Sh. Ramnivash (Clerk) is the concerned official responsible for providing the complete and relevant information as sought by the appellant. It was further stated that despite repeated reminders, the said official has not responded or supplied the requisite records to the PIO.

Appeal Case No. 35 and 36 of 2025
