Appeal Case No. 6676 of 2025

Present: None for the parties.

ORDER:

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 28.07.2026 passed by the Commission.

2. Neither the appellant nor the respondent PIO is present at today's hearing. However, an email dated 07.10.2026 has been received from the respondent PIO, enclosing an amended copy of the affidavit pertaining to Point No. 4 of the RTI application. The respondent PIO has also enclosed a copy of the acknowledgment bearing the appellant's receipt, evidencing that the appellant received the information on 17.09.2026. The aforesaid documents submitted by the respondent PIO are taken on record.

3. In view of the submissions made by the respondent PIO through the aforesaid email and the documents placed on record, the Commission is satisfied that its directions have been duly complied with by the respondent PIO. Accordingly, the Commission is of the considered view that no further cause of action survives in the present appeal case. The appeal is, therefore, disposed of and closed. Copies of the order be sent to the parties.

Appeal Case No. 6461 of 2025

Present: (i) The appellant is absent.
(ii) Sh. Gaurav Shukla, Junior Assistant on behalf of the respondent PIO.

ORDER:

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 03.08.2026 passed by the Commission.

2. At today's hearing, the appellant is absent. However, an email dated 07.10.2026 has been received from the appellant, wherein he submits that, in compliance with the directions issued by the Commission, he has sent a copy of his submission explaining the larger public interest involved in seeking the information.

3. The respondent PIO, represented by Sh. Gaurav Shukla, Junior Assistant, submits that no such submission or document demonstrating the larger public interest has been received from the appellant.

4. The Commission has perused the submission sent by the appellant. It is observed that the appellant has not specified any cogent grounds to establish the larger public interest warranting disclosure of the information sought. The RTI application pertains to third-party information, and the appellant has failed to demonstrate the existence of any larger public interest that would justify its disclosure. Accordingly, no grounds have been made out at this stage to direct disclosure of the third-party information sought by the appellant.

5. In view of the above, there is no further cause of action is warranted in the above said appeal case. The instant appeal case is hereby, disposed of and closed. Copies of the order be sent to the parties.

Appeal Case No.1530 of 2025

Present: (i) Sh. Inderjit Verma, the appellant.
(ii) Adv. Gulshan Mehta on behalf of the respondent PIO.

ORDER:

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 30.07.2026 passed by the Commission.

2. At today's hearing, the respondent PIO, represented by Adv. Gulshan Mehta, submits the original affidavit in compliance with the directions issued by the Commission vide order dated 30.07.2026. In the said affidavit, the respondent PIO affirms that complete information, as available in the official records, has been furnished to the appellant and that no further information pertaining to the RTI application remains available or pending for supply. The original affidavit is handed over to the appellant during the course of the hearing.

3. The appellant has also submitted an affidavit, which is taken on record.

4. The Commission has perused the affidavits submitted by both parties. It is observed that the respondent PIO has complied with the directions issued by the Commission by filing an affidavit affirming that the information available in the official records has been furnished to the appellant. On the other hand, the appellant, in his affidavit, has reiterated the points raised in his RTI application and alleged that incomplete information has been provided to him.

5. It is further observed that the appellant was afforded several opportunities to inspect the relevant records but did not avail himself of the same. The respondent PIO has maintained that the information available in the official records has already been furnished and has duly supported this submission by filing an affidavit before the Commission. In case, the appellant is not satisfied with the submissions made in the affidavit filed by the respondent PIO, he is at liberty to avail himself of the appropriate alternative forum for redressal of his personal grievances, in accordance with law.
