ORDER

The RTI application is dated 30.10.2023 vide which the appellant has sought information as enumerated in his RTI application. First appeal was filed with the First Appellate Authority (hereinafter FAA) and second appeal was filed in the Commission on 22.04.2024 under Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (hereinafter RTI Act). Notice of hearing was issued to the parties for 14.07.2026 in the Commission.

2. Today, the appellant is absent. However, an e-mail has been received from her seeking an adjournment. The perusal of the case file shows that the notice of hearing sent to the appellant was received back from the postal authorities. However, Poonam Mahant was informed telephonically about today's hearing.

3. The Commission has carefully examined the record as well as the submissions available on file. It is observed that the present appeal arises out of the same subject matter and substantially involves the same issues as Appeal No. 3031 of 2024 (along with connected Appeal No. 3033 of 2024). Since controversy involved is common and is being adjudicated comprehensively in appeal No. 3031 of 2024, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding separately in the present appeal. Accordingly, the present appeal is disposed of as connected with Appeal No. 3031 of 2024 which shall be treated as the lead case for adjudication. Accordingly, the present appeal stands disposed of and closed in the above terms. Copy of this order be sent to the parties.

ORDER

The RTI application is dated 16.01.2024 vide which the appellant has sought information as enumerated in his RTI application. First appeal was filed with the First Appellate Authority (hereinafter FAA) and second appeal was filed in the Commission on 22.04.2024 under Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (hereinafter RTI Act). Notice of hearing was issued to the parties for 14.07.2026 in the Commission.

2. Today neither the appellant nor the respondent is present. They have even not informed the Commission about their absence for today's hearing. A careful perusal of the case file shows that the appellant has sought the information in a prescribed format. The Commission observes that the Right to Information Act, 2005 obliges a public authority to provide information, as available, on record and does not cast any obligation to create, compile or furnish information in any particular format or proforma unless such information is already maintained in that form. Since the information sought is in the nature of a request to furnish the same in a specific proforma, no further direction is called for. Reliance is placed on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in CBSE vs. Aditya Bandopadhyay, wherein "The RTI Act provides only to information that is available and existing. A public authority is not required to collect, collate, create or furnish information in the manner desired by the applicant if it is not maintained in that form." Accordingly, the present appeal case stands disposed of and closed. 5. After going through the case file and the RTI filed by the appellant, it is observed that appellant demanded information regarding Sabha and the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court vide judgment dated 09.01.2025 in CM-19892-CWP-2024 in CWP-13580-2015 dated 09.01.2025 in the matter of The Punjab State Federation of Cooperative House Building Societies Limited vs The State Information Commission, Punjab and another and in CM-50-CWP-2025 in CWP-20904-2015 in the matter of The Punjab State Cooperative Bank Limited vs State Information Commission, Punjab and others held that :-

"keeping in view the judgment in General Manager, The Kisan Sahkari Chini Mills (supra), qua the petitioner- HOUSEFED, the State has only 21% share and qua petitioner-Cooperative Bank, state has not more than 1% of share, which is not good enough to treat the petitioners as Public Authority so as to be amenable to the RTI Act 2005. Once, the Cooperative Societies have been kept apart from the definition of Public Authority and law has already been settled on the said issue by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, ignorance of said settled principle of law by the State Information Commission, Punjab in the impugned orders cannot be upheld.

Once , the writ petition is not maintainable against the Cooperative Societies, making the petitioners amenable to the right to Information Act, 2005 will be contrary to the settled principle of law by treating it as a Public Authority.

The State has a power to pass appropriate amendment so as to include the Cooperative Societies under the jurisdiction of RTI Act.

At this stage, learned counsel for the State has submitted that to her knowledge, no such amendment has been undertaken so far by the State so as to bring the petitioners under the jurisdiction of Right to Information Act, 2005.

Till the date any such amendment is made by the State, keeping in view the settled principle of law and the facts qua the petitioners notice hereinbefore, orders dated 20.05.2015 and 27.08.2015 passed by the State Information Commission, Punjab are contrary to settled principle of law and cannot be sustained and are set aside".

6. In view of the above circumstances, no further cause of action is left, hence the above said appeal case filed by the appellant is disposed of and closed. Copy of the orders be sent to the parties.

APPEAL CASE NO. 5302 of 2024

Present :- None for the parties.

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 21.04.2025 passed by the Commission.

2. Today neither the appellant nor the respondent is present. The record reveals that the appellant appeared only once during the hearing held in 14.10.2025. Thereafter, despite repeated opportunities, the appellant neither appeared before the Commission nor informed any valid reason for his absence. Although written submissions have been received from the appellant, he has consistently failed to prosecute the appeal by remaining absent during the subsequent hearings. The respondent has also failed to appear despite due notice.

3. The Commission is of considered view that an appellant who invokes the appellate jurisdiction of the Commission is expected to diligently pursue the matter by participating in the proceedings. Mere filing of written submissions, without attending the hearing despite repeated opportunities, does not justify keeping the appeal pending indefinitely. In the absence of the parties and as no useful purpose would be served by granting further adjournments, no further intervention of the Commission is called for. Accordingly, the appeal case filed by the appellant is disposed of and closed. Copy of the order be sent to the parties.
