APPEAL CASE NO. 4946 of 2025

Present :- None for the parties.

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 22.04.2026 vide which the respondent was not present.

2. Today neither the appellant nor the respondent is present. The respondent has not informed the Commission about his absence. The appellant has sent an email that no information has been given to him so far. He further sought another date.

3. The perusal of the case file shows that the respondent has not attended any hearing in the Commission. A careful perusal of the record reveals that the respondent has persistently failed to participate in the proceedings. Despite repeated opportunities, the respondent has neither appeared before the Commission on any of the previous dates of hearing nor submitted any written response to the RTI application. Moreover, no communication explaining such absence has been received by the Commission. Such continued non-compliance demonstrates a casual and indifferent approach towards the statutory obligations under the RTI Act and reflects a lack of respect for the proceedings of the Commission.

4. The Commission expresses serious concern over the conduct of the respondent. Nevertheless, in the interest of natural justice, one final and last opportunity is granted to the respondent to file a detailed and point-wise reply to the RTI application, furnish the same to the appellant, and place proof of such service on record before the next date of hearing. The respondent is hereby put on clear notice that any further failure to comply with the directions of the Commission, or failure to appear on the next date of hearing without sufficient cause, shall be viewed seriously and may invite appropriate action as permissible under the provisions of the RTI Act. No further indulgence shall be shown in the matter.

APPEAL CASE NO. 3641 of 2025

Present :- None for the parties.

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 09.06.2026 vide which the respondent was not present.

2. Today neither the appellant nor the respondent is present. They have even not informed the Commission about their absence for today's hearing.

3. The Commission has carefully perused the record available on file. It is observed that this is the third hearing in the matter. Not only has the respondent remained absent, but no explanation has been offered for such continued default.

4. The record further reveals that a Show Cause Notice has already been issued to the concerned respondent during the last hearing requiring him to explain why action under Section 20 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, should not be initiated against him. However, even after issuance of the Show Cause Notice, the respondent has chosen not to appear before the Commission or submit any explanation. Such conduct clearly reflects deliberate, wilful and persistent disregard of the statutory proceedings before this Commission.

5. The Commission is constrained to observe that the conduct of the respondent is wholly unacceptable. Repeated absence from the proceedings, failure to furnish information, failure to submit any written explanation and continued disregard of the Commission's directions amount to gross negligence in the discharge of statutory duties. Such conduct also results in unnecessary harassment to the appellant, who has been compelled to attend repeated hearings without any fault on his part. The Commission, therefore, takes a serious view of the continued and deliberate non-compliance by the respondent public authority.

6. Accordingly, a copy of this order be forwarded to the Commissioner, Mc,Ludhiana with the direction to personally examine the matter, identify the officer(s) responsible for the repeated non-compliance of the proceedings before this Commission, and ensure that appropriate administrative action is initiated against the defaulting official(s). The Commissioner, Mc,Ludhiana shall also ensure that the information sought by the appellant is furnished strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Right to Information Act, 2005, if not otherwise exempt under the Act, and shall submit a detailed Action Taken Report/Compliance Report before this Commission.

7. The respondent is once again directed to remain personally present before the Commission on the next date of hearing along with a point-wise reply, complete records pertaining to the RTI application, proof of dispatch of the information, if any, and a detailed explanation in response to the pending Show Cause Notice. In case of failure to comply with these directions or continued absence, the Commission shall be constrained to proceed further in accordance with law, including the continuation of proceedings under Section 20 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, without granting any further opportunity.

8. To come up on 14.10.2026 at 11.30 AM for further proceedings in the Commission. Copy of the order be sent to the parties.
